Dummies Berlitz
 Publishing
 A Stolen Paradise is a controversial new book about the making of The Night of the

Iguana. The non-fiction narrative follows the history of this modern classic from its creation as an acclaimed stage play
 by Tennessee Williams, regarded as the greatest playwright of the twentieth century,
 to its adaptation as an Oscar-winning movie directed by the legendary filmmaker
 John Huston. Sharing
 the spotlight in this riveting saga are two international
 megastars whose love
 affair dominated news coverage for much of that millennium:
 Richard Burton and Elizabeth Taylor,
 together with the
 highly combustible
 superstar Ava Gardner, and a third equally
 impressive star, Deborah Kerr, who lived side-by-side for three months in the Mexican jungle during the film's production. Everyone involved hoped they would benefit from the movie's success. But what was the personal and professional cost to each of them? Through extensive archival research and firsthand interviews, which uncover many previously unknown facts, Howard Johns brings to life the people and events surrounding The Night of the Iguana and its transformative effect on Puerto Vallarta - once a small fishing village, now an international tourist destination. It was there, in the isolated jungles of Mismaloya, that the movie had its greatest impact, introducing the native inhabitants, who had no previous contact with the outside world, to a modern way of life, the effects of which are still being felt today. This richly detailed account of movie making is more than an exposé of Hollywood or a sentimental wallow in nostalgia; it is also a time capsule of world events. A Stolen Paradise combines elements of American pop culture, Mexican history and Aztec mythology to tell a prescient saga of human conquest and its surprising, often tragic, consequences.
