Teaching in Post-14 Education & Training provides a skilfully balanced mix of essential theory and practical guidance to support you if you are studying an 'education and training' qualification. It covers fundamental background information such as key philosophies and concepts, current policy and practice, key thinkers and ideas, and includes a useful chronology. More importantly it also provides the tools to help you approach the classroom with confidence, covering fundamental issues such as teaching and learning, assessment, resources, and course design. Through its pedagogical features the book also offers you opportunities to pause and reflect, as well as practical exercises, templates and examples of student work. Key features of this new edition include:

- Links to the latest Professional Standards for Teachers and Trainers
- Updating of the legislative and policy context
- Supporting learning with technology
- Planning for equality and diversity
- Embedding language and literacy

This is the definitive textbook on teaching, learning and assessment for those training to work in the post-14 sector.

An Introduction to Sociology Nelson Thornes

This new textbook, published in June 2007, comprehensively covers the content students require to prepare for AQA GCSE (Double Award) Health & Social Care coursework tasks and the written paper. It is designed to develop students' knowledge and understanding of the key issues in health and social care and successfully meet the three assessment objectives of the specification.

Illustrated in full colour throughout, AQA GCSE Health & Social Care comprises three sections which match the units of the course: Health, social care and early years provision; Promoting health and well-being; Understanding personal development and relationships. Students will be able to reinforce their learning with the activities featured in each section, and use the support and advice provided for producing portfolio evidence and preparing for the written test. Clearly presented and highly accessible, AQA Health & Social Care is essential reading for all students following this specification.
