The Kingdom of Lesotho (formerly known as Basutoland) or "Lesotho" for short, is a small mountainous landlocked country in southern Africa surrounded completely by the Republic of South Africa. In other words, The Kingdom of Lesotho is an enclave of South Africa (within South Africa but with its own borders). The name Lesotho which simply translates "The land of the Sotho speakers" was adopted after independence from the United Kingdom in 1966. Major problems facing Lesotho today Lesotho is a small, mountainous, and landlocked country, surrounded by its much larger neighbor, South Africa. It has a population of about two million, and nominal per capita gross domestic product (GDP) of $1,299. Lesotho is classified as a lower-middle-income country. It is mostly highlands, with its lowest point 1,400 meters above sea level. Lesotho -
