The Survey assesses global and regional e-government development through a comparative rating of national government portals relative to one another. It is designed to provide a snapshot of country trends and relative rankings of e-government development in the implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals. It presents trends and relative rankings of e-government development across 193 Member States through a quantitative composite index, the E-Government Development Index (EGDI), with three separate components - the Online Service Index (OSI), Telecommunication Infrastructure Index (TII), and Human Capital Index	(HCI). Includes addendum on COVID-19 (coronavirus) response Headway Academic Skills: 3: Reading, Writing, and Study Skills Student's Book with Oxford Online Skills OUP Oxford A three-level, paired skills course that teaches students in higher education the essential skills for academic success. practice to encourage learner independence. Integrating Engineering Education and Humanities for Global Intercultural Perspectives OUP Oxford English for Academic Purposes provides a comprehensive overview of the field of English for Academic Purposes (EAP) for teachers. It not only looks at study skills, but also at other central concerns of EAP, such as needs analysis, syllabus and course design, methodology and materials, learning styles, tests and exams, and academic style and genre analysis. In addition to general EAP, the author also considers subject-specific language and the production of teaching materials. Throughout, the author adopts a user-friendly approach in which theoretical considerations are balanced with practical experience.

Issues are discussed and illustrated, but readers are also encouraged to form their own opinions by means of stimulating introspect and discuss sections at the end of each chapter. Headway Academic Skills: Introductory: Reading, Writing, and Study Skills Student's Book with Oxford Online Skills OXFORD University Press Headway Academic Skills can be used
