This book is about the surprisingly neglected area of the regulation of sex. It describes and discusses the ways in which various sexual activities are controlled, regulated and made illegal and/or deviant and illicit. Its primary focus is upon the multiple and complex social controls (laws, statutory regulations, professional/occupational codes, normative frameworks) constructing and shaping how we 'do' sex, and deals with sex that is both illicit (deviant, illegal) and illegal (criminal, offending). The book challenges the idea that early twenty-first century

Britain is increasingly sexually 'liberated' by suggesting that this very 'openness' provides the conditions in which all sexual activities have become increasingly subject to regulation and control. By examining the policies and laws about various sexually activities, and the social conditions underpinning them, alongside existing research and theoretical literature the authors have provided an accessible text on the sociology of sex.

Sloane isn't expecting to fall in with a group of friends when she moves from New York to Florida—especially not a group of friends so intense, so in love, so all-consuming. Yet that's exactly what happens. Sloane becomes closest to Vera, a social-media star who lights up any room, and Gabe, Vera's twin brother and the most serious person Sloane's ever met. When a beloved painting by the twins' late mother goes missing, Sloane takes on the responsibility of tracking it down, a journey that takes her across state lines—and ever deeper into the twins' lives. Filled with intense and important friendships, a wonderful warts-and-all family, shiveringly good romantic developments, and sharp, witty dialogue, this story is about finding the people you never knew you needed.

Award-winning storyteller Donna Washington has cooked up a delightfully spooky fractured fairy tale with a diverse, imaginative twist on the classic "Goldilocks." Curly Locks is a goodhearted girl, but she's an awful cook. All the townspeople of Toadsuck Swamp know to steer clear of her culinary concoctions--like the batwing brownies and toad eye toffees. So when one of her dishes goes missin' from her windowsill, word is spreadin' like a kerosene fire about how the Scares have been terrorizin' the town at mealtime. They shriek "Gitchey Boo, Gitchey Bon! Gitchey Goo, Gitchey Gone!" and send folk runnin' from their dinner plates. With everyone else tremblin' and squawkin' about the mean Scares, Curly Locks gets an inklin'. Can she use her smarts and unique talents to help corral those Scares for good? Internationally known, award-winning storyteller Donna Washington uses her tremendous skill to breathe new life into the classic "Goldilocks" tale. Her clever, can-do protagonist and joyful language paired with Jeffrey Ebbeler's charming, imaginative illustrations will tempt readers into a ghostly, yet enchanting landscape that they won't want to leave!

In the "Kani Magazine" series, readers are introduced to the real on-goings at a popular eromanga publisher! Veteran hentai editor Satou is trying hard to make her assignments go smoothly, but problems keep popping up. She's either having problems with one of her more popular artists falling behind on her deadlines, or she's spending her time training up a virgin artist who wouldn't know what's sexy if it was smothering him. With artists like these, her workload keeps piling up, maybe she'll have to take a more hands on approach to eromanga making. Simon and Schuster The seventh Dr. Siri Paiboun mystery When a Lao female security officer is discovered stabbed through the heart with a fencing sword, Dr. Siri, the reluctant national coroner for the People's Democratic Republic of Laos, is brought in to examine the body. Soon two other young women are found killed in the same unusual way. Siri learns that all three victims studied in Europe and that one of them was being pursued by a mysterious stalker. But before he can solve the case, he is whisked away to Cambodia on a diplomatic mission. Though on the surface the Khmer Rouge seem to be committed to the socialist cause, Siri soon learns the horrifying truth of the killing fields and finds himself thrown into prison. Can the seventy-four-year-old doctor escape with his life? From the Trade Paperback edition.

Laos, 1979: Dr. Siri Paiboun, the twice retired ex-National Coroner of Laos, receives an unmarked package in the mail. Inside is a handwoven pha sin, a colorful traditional skirt worn in northern Laos. A lovely present, but who sent it to him, and why? And, more importantly, why is there a severed human finger stitched into the sin's lining? Siri is convinced someone is trying to send him a message and won't let the matter rest until he's figured it out. He finagles a trip up north to the province where the sin was made, not realizing he is embarking on a deadly scavenger hunt. Meanwhile, the northern Lao border is about to erupt into violence—and Dr. Siri and his entourage are walking right into the heart of the conflict.

 Since 2009, Trudy Cooper and Doug Bayne's hilarious and filthy comic strip OGLAF has entertained hundreds of thousands of online readers. Set in a fantasy world complete with knights and wizards, elves and monsters, OGLAF satirizes the tropes of genre fiction and contemporary sexual mores at the same time, resulting in both hilarity AND smutty scenes between people (and sometimes creatures) of every size, shape, and color. Some episodes stand alone, while others combine in short story arcs. Among the stories in this first volume is the introduction of the teasing Mistress and her unlucky apprentice Ivan, cursed with eternal sexual frustration; the adventures of the dangerous and seductive Thief; the forbidden love of the barbarian Kronar, Son of Man; the eternal winter of the never-satisfied Snow Queen; the many innovations of the sexsmith dwarves; and of course, Oglaf the illiterate shepherd boy discovering his secret power. This volume contains graphic cartoon nudity and is intended only for adults. Sissy Hypno: Sissy Goo Girls Peachtree Publishing Company
