A Biblical Response to

a Worldwide Movement University of Illinois Press From Justin Bieber, to Sarah Palin and Michele Bachmann, to the controversial documentary Jesus Camp (2006), the New Apostolic Reformation's influence can be seen everywhere in mainstream America.

Beginning with an examination of the Latter Rain, Church Growth and Shepherding movements, this book explores how the new Reformation has become one of the most powerful movements in modern evangelical Christianity and a major influence on American political and cultural life. The author describes the New Apostolic Reformation's organization, how the movement spread and its national and international objectives. Destiny Image Publishers This is the first attempt to comprehend the whole of Malawi's church history in a single volume. The focus of this book is about documenting the religious experience which was at the centre of founding the new nation of Malawi as we have come to know it. The book strikes a balance in covering issues pertaining to both mission activities and African agency. In many instances interesting pieces of evidence have been marshalled to corroborate or emphasize some of the conclusions reached.

God Is Love Thomas Nelson
Reflections on Prayer is a resource that surveys Scripture to unearth what the Spirit teaches us about this most important spiritual privilege. The purpose of this resource is to expand our knowledge and deepen the relationship each of us has with the One who hears and answers prayer.
The New Apostolic Churches Forgotten Books Ken Sande, author of the bestselling classic The Peacemaker, has long been a trusted resource on the topic of conflict resolution. In Resolving Everyday Conflict, Sande distills his message to the essentials, quickly equipping readers with the tools they need to bring peace to their relationships. Everyone encounters conflict-- whether it be with a coworker, family member, friend, or complete stranger. And yet we all desire harmony in our relationships. Resolving Everyday Conflict is a practical, biblical, concise guide to peacemaking in everyday life that can turn tumultuous relationships into peaceful ones.

The New Apostolic Reformation Baker Books

Excerpt from Apostolic Hymns and Songs: A Collection of Hymns and Songs, Both New and Old, for the Church, Protracted Meetings, and the Sunday Schools Apostolic Hymns and Songs has been prepared with the idea of presenting the Apostolic teaching, the Gospel, with all its facts, commands, and promises, in song, in such a manner that

"sense and sound" may go together. Especial attention has been given to the adaptation of hymns and songs for protracted and social meetings that the whole congregation can sing, and the effort has been made to utilize the singing of the Sunday-school in the church, the author regarding it as a great mistake to make a distinction between church and Sunday-school music. The time to teach the plain, grand old melodies is in childhood, that in all after years the songs of childhood may be the songs of age, which can never be done with the "hop, skip and jump" music that is evanescent in its character and not adapted to congregational singing. Consequently many of the old melodies, those that have stood the test of public judgment, have been selected in preference to new ones. At the same time, a sufficient number of new hymns and songs have been prepared to give variety and interest in the work to those who desire something new, and the author flatters himself that many of them will meet with a hearty reception by those who appreciate pure, sweet, and scriptural songs. The department of music and harmony has been under the supervision of Prof. Z. M. Parvin, whose reputation as a composer and harmonist is a sufficient guarantee that this part of the work is well done. Credit has been given in the proper place to the authors of both words and music, as far as possible; and to the many friends who have contributed to these pages, we desire to express our thanks. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Reflections on Prayer Shawnee Press

Shenton explains how to listen to God and the ways the Holy Spirit uses to encourage personal growth and development. The author says his mission in life is to assist other people in experiencing that deep relationship with God and His blessings and power. (Christian)

With an Introduction on Religious Music Among the Primitive and Ancient Peoples Mel Bay Publications

Apostolic epochs involve a breaking away, a new definition and a reorientation. They refocus kingdom purposes. The apostolic epoch that we are now entering is the fulfillment of the desire of Jesus, that his church be a house of prayer for all nations. This is not the mere amplification of prayer as it is often perceived. It is not the addition of a missing prayer component, or prayer even as a bountiful additive, a power pack, to what we are currently doing. It is not the mere deepening or heightening of the value of prayer; it is a seismic apostolic shift. Through this assertive sovereign governance of God, He will intervene into history for missional purposes.

Birth of New Churches from New Believers

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform

The perfect gift! A specially priced, beautifully designed hardcover edition of The Joy of the Gospel with a foreword by Robert Barron and an afterword by James Martin, SJ. "The joy of the gospel fills the hearts and lives of all who encounter Jesus... In this Exhortation I wish to encourage the Christian faithful to embark upon a new chapter of evangelization marked by this joy, while pointing out new paths for the Church's journey in years to come." – Pope Francis This special edition of Pope Francis's popular message of hope explores themes that are important for believers in the 21st century. Examining the many obstacles to faith and what can be done to overcome those hurdles, he emphasizes the importance of service to God and all his creation. Advocating for "the homeless, the addicted, refugees, indigenous peoples, the elderly who are increasingly isolated and abandoned," the Holy Father shows us how to respond to poverty and current economic challenges that affect us locally and globally. Ultimately, Pope Francis demonstrates how to develop a more personal relationship with Jesus Christ, "to recognize the traces of God's Spirit in events great and small." Profound in its insight, yet warm and accessible in its tone, The Joy of the Gospel is a call to action to live a life motivated by divine love and, in turn, to experience heaven on earth. Includes a foreword by Robert Barron, author of Catholicism: A Journey to the Heart of the Faith and James Martin, SJ, author of Jesus: A Pilgrimage

 This critique provides a framework for understanding and interpreting the widespread but little-known New Apostolic Reformation (NAR) movement. As the authors state in the preface: "We write this book with two major goals in mind. First, to give people an idea of the sheer size and reach of the NAR movement. And second, to systematize its key teachings and practices and evaluate them on the basis of Scripture and careful reasoning In our judgment, the NAR perspective crosses these boundaries [that is, certain broad parameters, revealed in Scripture and practiced in the historical orthodox church], and it does so in part because of flawed theology rooted in a flawed understanding of Scripture. We wish to warn readers about a possible confusion: Some critics have linked the NAR movement with mainstream Pentecostalism and charismatics. We do not do this. In fact, it is our contention that the NAR movement deviates from classical Pentecostal and charismatic teachings. This movement has emerged out of independent charismatic churches and, thus, has gained a foothold in many of those churches in varying degrees." The 7 Mountain Mandate Legare Street Press According to the Psalms, God is enthroned on the praises of His people--and it is from that throne that He governs the heavens and the earth. If this picture of God's rule, found throughout the Scriptures, is accurate, shouldn't the Body of Christ seek to praise the King of heaven and earth in ways that release His kingdom government into specific circumstances? John A. Dickson and Chuck D. Pierce, coauthors of Worship As It Is in Heaven, offer the church a fresh look at heaven's pattern of worship, instituted in David's tabernacle and renewed through Jesus' apostles in the earliest days of the church. This "apostolic worship" is God's chosen way of establishing His will on earth; through worship, the forces of darkness are pushed back and righteousness prevails. In Worship As It Is in Heaven, readers are invited to enter in to a fullness of worship that the world has too rarely seen: worship that is the conduit of God's government of peace, justice, and holiness on the earth.

The Century of the Holy Spirit Xulon Press

The word of love in the book is a spiritual weapon meant for our current generation and the message to the generations to come. The prophetic word is the intertwine of the real life situations, visions, dreams and prophesies which I experienced in my way of faith. The challenges which I encountered and how the Lord helped me to pull through in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Nonetheless the malady of hatred which has contaminated the world, it is only peace and love from the Lord which can heal the infectious ulcer which man has suffered. Dignity has been lost in accordance to Hosea 4:6 'my people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge. I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children'. Further, that our Lord Jesus Christ came down with the seed of peace and love to unify the candidates of heaven through the provision of the Holy Scriptures. Let us unite and break the seed of hatred which Satan had planted in the hearts of men. 1 Corinthians 13:3

And now abideth faith, hope, love, these three;
but the greatest of these is love. This book is dedicated to all my brothers and sisters in the Lord, especially those who are at the verge of losing hope of survival spiritually. It is therefore, here to impart in their hearts with Peace and Love from our God Almighty. The word in this book is aimed at reconciling the people on earth with love so as to cushion the conflicts among nations. It is in accordance to Isaiah 2:2-3 the message in the book has been written and it is therefore inviting all my brothers and sisters from across the world to experience the Holy Spirit with words of great faith in the Lord. The book is here to comfort the sick, the afflicted and those souls who are persecuted by the enemy. It also embraces all the races and does not stigmatize any person as it is based on the true love from our Lord and the message is inspired by the Holy Spirit with a view to unite the people across the globe. I therefore wish the Church, the United Nations, the governments and other charitable organizations to enhance preaching peace among the people in the land for us to have a better world.

It is in this line, that the Lord our God came down on earth to save humanity. More so, we should embrace peace and love to survive this world of troubles. The love of God is unconditional, thus, we should follow suit to have a godly love in our hearts or humanity will be wiped out on the face of the earth soonest. The beauty of welcoming peace and love from God is compared to the bond between the earth and the sun and the rain. There is no segregation in the house of the Lord but we are all equal in the face of our creator. Mother Nature has been very kind to us and it reprimands us whenever we err but our Lord Jesus Christ used to curse Nature. We have continued preaching about the importance of spreading the word of God and also His love which has made us to be who we are on earth. The love of God unifies the people and that it cuts through the rod of hatred which is in the hearts of the evil ones. We should therefore embrace the love of God for us to reach greater heights of love, where all religions, race and tribes shall stand tall in the same platform and pronounce to the higher heavens that we are one people. Women and children needs true love from our hearts. I dream of a beautiful world where we shall be protected by the love of God, because humanity on that day shall have total unite. It is common knowledge that Satan has infiltrated our governments, entertainment industry and a lot more circles of life. Therefore, it is time man woke up from the deep slumber and fight for his life or else he will die naked with shame. However, we wrestled the devil for us to have peace and love so that we get saved but the battle has been tough. The Lord has been fighting battles for humanity because God is love. Amen!!

Music and Worship in Global Pentecostal-Charismatic Christianity

Infinity Publishing

From the beginning, God has called leaders to serve His people. For God, Abraham left his homeland. Moses declined Egypt and its riches. Joshua destroyed Jericho. Elijah confronted King Ahab. Daniel faced the lions; and the James and John forsook their nets. Matthew left his customs booth. And Paul left a life of power and prestige.

Despite their trials, these all found the venture satisfying. Paul's account of shipwreck, floggings, danger, and hardship glows with suffused excitement. He was having the time of his life! What if he'd said no to Christ? Telling the Philippians about the things he had given up, Paul declared, "I consider them rubbish." And why? "That I may gain Christ and be found in him" Philippians 3:8-9. We enjoy the same perspective, for through His Cross; Jesus opened not only the door of salvation for all who would accept, but the privilege of service as well. Jew, Greek, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free...all may serve the Lord Christ. Some were apostles. Some, prophets. Some will be evangelists, some pastors and teachers. All are "for the equipping of the saints, for the work of service, to the building up of the Body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man, to the measure of the stature which belongs to the fullness of Christ" Ephesians 4:12-13. For the Minister of the Gospel, each day offers a new challenge. The phone rings; we are summoned to the bedside of a dying man. Later in the day, we help arrange a marriage. That evening, we counsel a soul in trouble. No other vocation offers such a wide span of involvement with mankind. Then when we stand to preach, think of it...in our weak and human hands we hold the truth of God, the supreme answer to the souls of man. The ministry of Christ is not a job, not a profession. It is a calling, and the noblest...the most demanding and at times exasperating, but it is surely the most satisfying and rewarding experience human life affords. With Paul, we can truly say, "I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has strengthened me, because He considered me faithful, putting me into service" 1Timothy 1:12. Like the Christian life, the ministry of Christ is a relationship between the disciple and his lord. We serve Him; He develops and strengthens us. We must prepare ourselves first, then our sermons. The very fact that we are ministers will work against our spiritual life unless we are careful. We study the Bible, but for a text; we pray, but in front of a group or beside a hospital bed. While attending to these public ministries, our personal devotions may be neglected. Power in preaching comes in direct proportion to time spent in prayer and in the Word.

Nothing...not speaking ability nor a forceful personality nor a persuasive manner...can take the place of the Spirit of God, filing and shaping and using the life committed to Him. Are we adequate to the task? Never. We have this treasure in jars of clay, but God accepts and uses our service nonetheless. Paul finally learned to accept his weakness, so "that the power of Christ may dwell in me" 2Corinthians 12:9. If the truth were known, few of us pray enough. We tend to rely too much upon our cleverness in programming and promotion, but not enough upon the power of God through prayer. Sadly, our churches show it. A definite time and place, preferably early in the morning, where one can shut out the world and feed upon the Word, unburden his heart, and commune with the Father will set the tone for the day and for a lifetime. The minister who keeps his appointment with God need have no anxiety about his work. In his daily walk, he will experience the unfolding hand of God bringing new power and effectiveness. He will see his life lifted to a new level he never dreamed possible, a level he could never have attained by himself. Pressed by the crowds, with such a short time to complete His task, Jesus still found time to pray. So must we.

The Joy of the Gospel

In The Spirit of Praise, Monique Ingalls and Amos Yong bring together a multidisciplinary, scholarly exploration of music and worship in global pentecostal-charismatic Christianity at the beginning of the twenty-first century. The Spirit of Praise contends that gaining a full understanding of this influential religious movement requires close listening to its songs and careful attention to its patterns of worship. The essays in this volume place ethnomusicological, theological, historical, and sociological perspectives into dialogue. By engaging with these disciplines and exploring themes of interconnection, interface, and identity within musical and ritual practices, the essays illuminate larger social processes such as globalization, sacralization, and secularization, as well as the role of religion in social and cultural change. Aside from the editors, the contributors are Peter Althouse, Will Boone, Mark Evans, Ryan R. Gladwin, Birgitta J. Johnson, Jean Ngoya Kidula, Miranda Klaver, Andrew Mall, Kimberly Jenkins Marshall, Andrew M. McCoy, Martijn Oosterbaan, Dave Perkins, Wen Reagan, Tanya Riches, Michael Webb, and Michael Wilkinson. An Apostolic Guide for New Ministers of the Gospel InterVarsity Press

In 2010, Jeremiah Johnson received a dramatic and life changing prophetic dream where he was taken to heaven and stood before the throne of God. While standing in the court of heaven before Jesus Christ and accompanied by seven angels, God the Father gave Jeremiah a prophetic message for church leaders across the globe, "Let My People Go". In the days and years that followed this profound experience, Jeremiah began searching the Scriptures and having conversations and experiences with God that have left his theology and mindset concerning church leadership and the global Church changed forever. God told Jeremiah that a new apostolic generation is emerging in the earth who carry special grace and a mandate to connect the people of God back to their true foundation and head, Jesus Christ. A new wineskin is forming in the global Church that will include the restoration of plurality of eldership, the five fold ministry, true apostolic fathering, the training and equipping of the saints like never before, and the genuine worship of Jesus Christ like only He deserves. If you are ready for revelation from the Word of God and encounters with Him that are explosive and mind-blowing, if you are frustrated with your current experience of Church and know that there has to be more, then this book is for you. It's time for another reformation that will shake the body of Christ and the new apostolic generation has been called to pioneer it! Peace and Love to the World Image Although most of the poetry and hymns from the Apostolic father is no longer with us, what has been preserved is given here in a beautiful form translated faithfully from the original Greek. The translator is a gifted poet that was awarded high honours for his work on this and other projects. Leaving the task to translate such vivid and real poetry from such a time as we have not seen before could only be handled by a true poet at heart. These hymns will bring you to a time and place where the gospel was being preached boldly and will embolden you to take on the evangelical call to spread the word of our saviour Jesus Christ.

 The Apostolic Calling is the definitive teaching by Apostle Les on the call to the Apostolic Office. In this New Expanded Edition, you will find extra teaching by Les as well as some teaching from Apostle Nadine Stohler. There are 11 new chapters that were not in the 1st edition. Today many are claiming to be apostles, and there is a lot of confusion on exactly what the Apostolic Calling is. Apostle Les D. Crause will teach you exactly what the Apostle is called to do, and how to identify the Apostolic Call in your life. The call to Apostle is one of the highest Ministry offices that God can call you to. Very often the Lord starts to prepare you from a young age, and can take years before you are prepared to flow in it. This is not a call to be taken lightly. God has been raising up His Apostles in these end times and they have begun to shake the church and the world.
